Dear Prof. Xisheng Xu(DOB: 01/18/1962), Prof. Xiaolei Wang(DOB: 06/30/1979), Prof. Weiqiang Li (DOB: 12/26/1983) and Mr. Shijing Hang (DOB:08/27/1993),

I am very glad to hear that you are coming for the 2018 Goldschmidt meeting in Boston. After the meeting, all of you are cordially invited to visit the Department of Earth and Atmospheric Sciences at the City College of New York (CCNY), CUNY from 08/18/2018 to 08/21/2018. Boston and New York cities are very close to each other. During your visit, you will be asked to give presentations on topics of your interests and interact with students and faculty. We are particularly interested in your expertise on the construction and operation of high-quality geochemistry labs, and discuss potential collaborative research projects and student exchange program. Hopefully your trip will be fruitful and I am looking forward to your visit.

I understand that your travel expense will be covered by your personal and research funds. Feel free to contact me should you have any question.

Best regards,
